STOCK MARKET DEVELOPMENTS

Activity on the Zimbabwe Stock Exchange (ZSE) remained weak during December 2012, against the backdrop of low market liquidity levels and market uncertainties. Trading on the ZSE continued to be concentrated on a few blue chip counters, rendering other counters illiquid.

Reflective of thin trading on the local bourse, the volume of shares traded continued on a declining trend, from 158.1 million in November to 123.8 million shares in December 2012, representing a 21.7% monthly decline.

The value of shares traded in December also declined to US$25.8 million, reflecting a 3.7% monthly decrease. Non-residents recorded net purchases of US$2.1 million in December 2012, a decline of 54.4% from US$4.7 million in the previous month.

The industrial index, however, recovered from a loss of 2.8% between October and November and gained 1.5% between November and December 2012, as a result of significant trading in heavily capitalized counters such as Econet and Delta. The industrial index closed the year at 152.40 points. On a year-to-date basis, the industrial index rose by 5.3%.

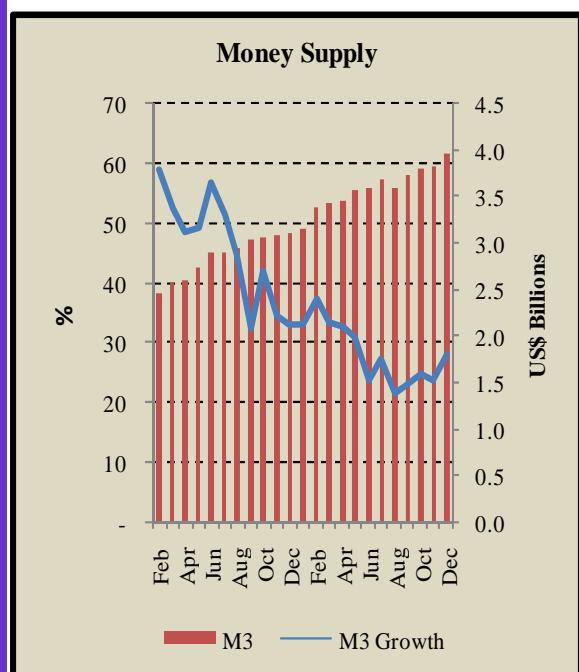

The recapitalization challenges being faced by mining companies further dragged down the mining index to close the year at 65.12 points, 5.3% lower than November's 68.74 points. On a year-to-date basis, the mining index lost 36.3%.

The above developments resulted in the total market capitalization rising by 1.9%, from US$3.9 billion in November to US$3.96 billion in December 2012. On a year-to-date basis, market capitalization registered a gain of 8.2%.

MONETARY DEVELOPMENTS

Annual growth in broad money ended the year at 28%, 4.2 percentage points higher than in November. Broad money rose from US$3.1 billion in December 2011 to US$3.97 billion in December 2012.

Most classes of deposits registered strong annual growth rates, ranging from 18% to 85.66%. Deposits have, however, remained largely short term, constraining the ability of banks to lend more longer term.

Of the US$3.97 billion deposits, US$3.15 billion or 79.35% were transitory in nature, that is, demand, savings and short term deposits. Deposits held by banks largely emanated from utilities and local authorities, 19.91%; households (individuals), 18.40%; financial organizations, 17.41%; and distribution, 12.96%.

Annual growth in domestic credit recovered to 32.1% in December, from 31.8% in November 2012. The annual growth was sustained by the private sector's appetite for credit to finance its operations. On a month-on-month basis, growth in domestic credit registered a 2% increase, from 3.4% in the previous month.

The banking sector channeled its credit largely to private sector enterprises, which accounted for 96.27% of total domestic credit. Net credit to Government accounted for only 2.19% of total domestic credit. This largely reflected the Government's usage of the cash budgeting system with minimal issuance of Treasury bills and other securities.

Outstanding credit to the private sector amounted to US$3 557.37 million, from US$3 488.78 million recorded in November 2012. Credit to the private sector was largely composed of loans and advances, 85.26%; mortgages, 7.82%; other investments, 3.73%; bills discounted, 1.87%; and 1.32% for Bankers' Acceptances. The growth in credit was largely underpinned by sustained demand for loans and advances.

Loans and advances were mainly allocated to agriculture (21.05%), distribution (20.31%) and manufacturing (19.61%) activities.

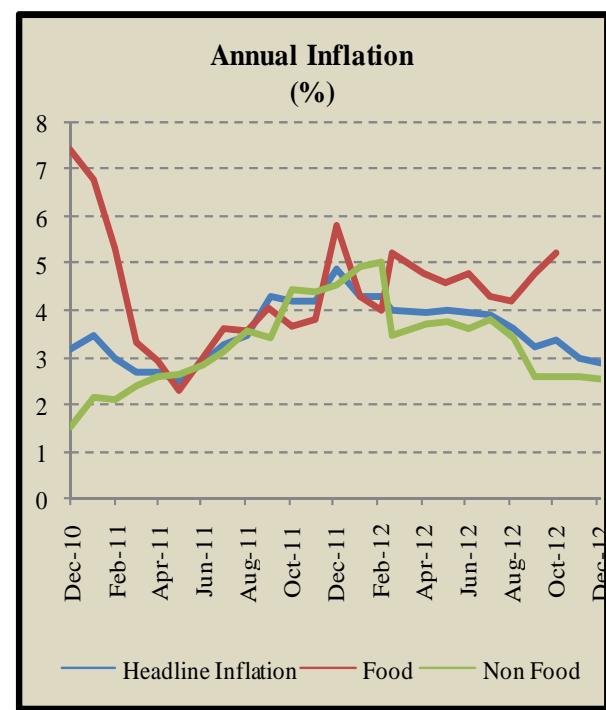

Households accounted for 13.67% of total loans and advances to the private sector.

Private sector loans and advances were mainly utilized for working capital (94.8%), credit utilized for fixed investment activity have remained low, with the procurement of plant and equipment accounting for 4.2% and pre and post shipment financing at 1% of total loans and advances.

INFLATION DEVELOPMENTS

Annual Inflation

The annual headline inflation decelerated to 2.91% in December 2012, from 2.99% in November 2012, driven by both food and non-food inflation.

Both annual food and non-food inflation recorded significant declines. Annual food inflation eased from 3.85% in November 2012 to 3.81% in December 2012 and non-food inflation from 2.58% to 2.51% for the same period.

The annual average inflation for 2012 stood at 3.7%, up from 3.5% in 2011, compared to the forecast of 4% for 2012.

On a year on year basis, sub-categories that recorded high inflation included education, 14.1%; housing, water, electricity, gas and other fuels, 10.7%; and transport, 6.9%.

Month-on-Month Inflation

Month-on-month inflation marginally declined from 0.134% in November 2012 to 0.131% in December 2012. Monthly food inflation rose to 0.29% in December 2012, from 0.18% in November 2012, largely driven by increases in the prices of vegetables and meat.

Monthly non-food inflation declined from 0.11% in November 2012 to 0.06% in December 2012.

Inflation Outlook

In the short term, review of rents and rates, school fees and electricity tariffs at the beginning of 2013, are expected to exert some upward pressure on inflation.

NATIONAL PAYMENTS SYSTEM DEVELOPMENTS

During the month of December 2012, there was an increase in the transactional activities on most payment streams except for cheques.

Zimbabwe Electronic Transfer Settlement System (ZETSS)

The value of transactions processed through the RTGS system increased from US$3 526 million in November 2012 to US$3 584.7 million in December 2012, representing a rise of 1.7%. Over the same period, however, the volume of transactions processed through the RTGS system declined by 11%.

Card Systems

The total value of card based transactions rose by 28.3%, from US$240.8 million in November to US$308.9 million in December 2012.

Mobile and Internet Based Transactions

The total value of mobile and internet based transactions increased by 11.7% to US$220.3 million in December 2012, from US$197.3 million recorded in November 2012.

Cheques

The total value of cheque transactions decreased by 15.3%, from US$5.9 million in November to US$5 million in December 2012.
