STOCK MARKET DEVELOPMENTS

In October 2015, Global stock markets were on a positive note, with investor sentiment being improved by expectations of a hike in interest rates in the United States of America.

In Africa, there was mixed performance amongst the major stock markets. The South African and Egyptian stock markets gained by 7.6% and 3.1%, respectively. Stock markets, however, declined by more than 6% each in Nigeria and Kenya.

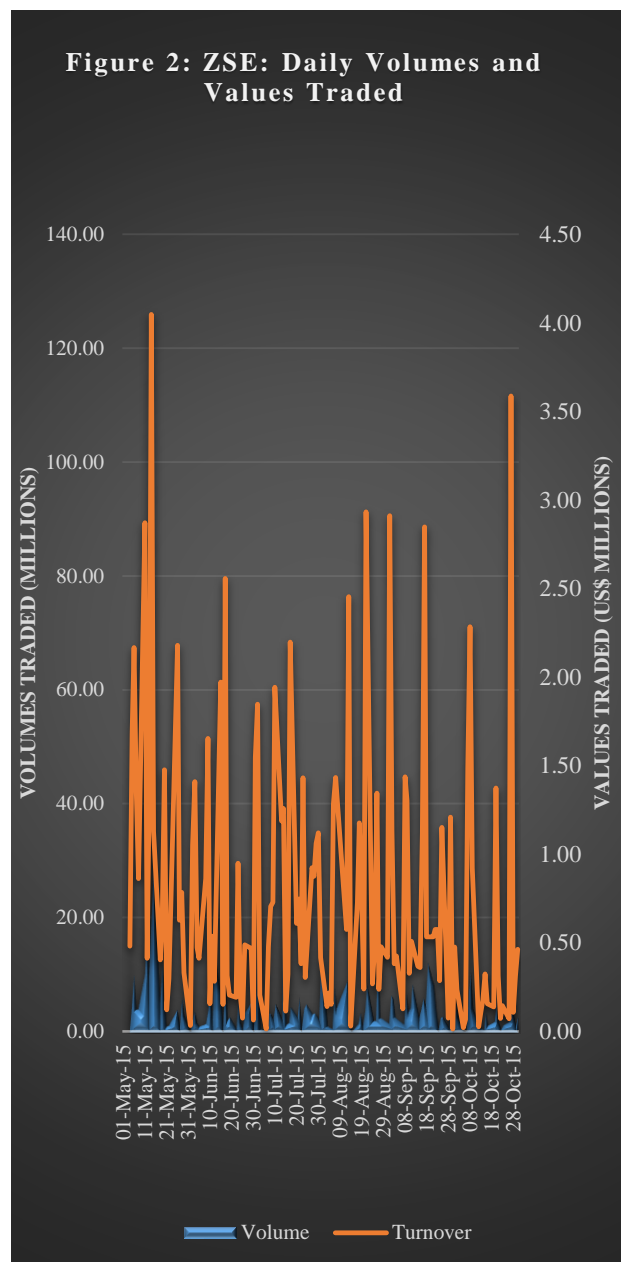

The Zimbabwe Stock Exchange (ZSE) continued to experience bearish sentiment during the month of October 2015, as investors remained skeptical about the economic outlook of the country. Consequently, both the mining and industrial indices declined during the period under review.

The industrial index further declined from 131.9 points in September 2015, to 130.8 points in October 2015. Over the same period the mining index fell by 3.2% to 23.6 points from 24.4 points.
